RE: MUR 3774

Dear Mr. Braden:

This letter is a follow-up to our discussions last week concerning your clients', Wes Anderson and John Isaf, review and signing of their deposition transcripts and our need for the completed designation of counsel from your client, Mike McDaniel.

At last week's deposition and thereafter, you indicated that you would like Messrs. Isaf and Anderson to review and sign their deposition transcripts. As I advised, we can contact a court reporter's office near Mr. Isaf's home or business in Massachusetts so that he can conveniently review the transcript there. Please contact me by the end of next week as to whether Mr. Isaf will review and sign his deposition so that we can arrange an opportunity for him to do so at a local court reporter's office. Of course, you and/or Mr. Isaf may also review the transcript at our offices.

As for Wes Anderson's deposition transcript, we have received the original transcript back from the court reporter, Heritage Reporting Corporation, who apparently sent you a letter on June 2 advising that the transcript was available for review and signing for the next 30 days. When we spoke last week, you stated that you did not remember receiving the letter. In any event, since we now have the original transcript in our possession, we will make it available for review and signing at the Commission's offices through the end of the month. Please contact me or Karen White at (202) 219-3400 to arrange a mutually convenient date and time.

Mr. Mark Braden, Esq.

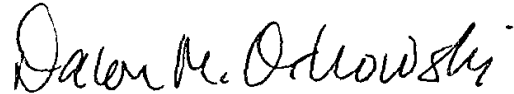

MUR 3774

Finally, please remember to return the completed designation of counsel form for Mike McDaniel as soon as possible.

As always, do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,
